ODPCC President's Corner

Greetings members! I hope everyone's summer has gone well so far. It seems to have flown by, maybe because there's been so much going on! Here's an update on Club activities:

June Picnic. We had a great day for a picnic, and everyone who attended enjoyed the weather, food, and company. It was nice to see some new faces at the picnic this year! I gave an update on the (then) upcoming Chester Library exhibit, and several members brought boards for that. A huge THANK-YOU to Nancy Riddlemoser for again providing a wonderful venue for our annual picnic! Thanks also to Jim Adams, who delivered the fried chicken, as well as sodas, ice, and paper products. And of course, thanks to everyone for bringing the sides and desserts we all enjoyed!

July Chester Library Exhibit.

What a great thing for the Club and the hobby! We've had nothing but positive comments (raves, actually) from the Library Staff and the public! Wonderful participation from Club members, too! I won't try to name everyone who helped, because I'm sure I'd forget to mention someone. Suffice to say, all involved with the planning, organization, setup, and take-down of this Library-wide exhibit deserve a big round of applause. Over 15 members supplied display boards and/or postcards for the exhibit. In all, there were over 50 individual displays, as well as a huge wall full of enlarged postcards in the children's area, a special exhibit about postcard history, and a seven-plus foot tall "House of Postcards"!

The Women's Club of Chester provided a nice reception for us on July 9, and many members attended. There was a competition to "Guess the number of cards" in the "House of Cards" during the Reception – the winner will be announced at the August meeting. If you couldn't make it to see the Exhibit, check out our website for pictures (www.olddominionpcc.com). Most of the Exhibit is down now, but the children's area is still up for another month. For anyone who didn't already pick up your display boards, they will be available at the August meeting.

Not only did we have lots of community interest and comments, but we also had great press coverage, with articles in the Richmond Times-Dispatch Weekender, the Chester Village News, the Petersburg Progress-Index, and the Chesterfield Observer. Over 200 Club Show cards were taken by the public during the Exhibit, as well as membership applications, and a special commemorative Library Exhibit Postcard (available at the August meeting). We have also received exhibit requests for next year from the Chesterfield Historical Society and the Library, so be prepared for more fun times!

November Postcard Show.

Contracts have been mailed in mid-July to over 30 dealers and many have already responded. I was at the Shenandoah Valley Postcard Show in July, and both dealers and customers were asking about the Show. There will be many returning dealers, and some new ones too. The mailing list has been refined and expanded, so we're expecting a record crowd. I hope everyone is working on ideas for Exhibit boards for the Show!

August 9 Meeting.

Mike Lee could not make it this month for his scheduled visit, but will come in October instead. HOWEVER, John Whiting will be bringing many, many albums full of cards to buy from the late Tom Cox's collection! In addition, John Lawson from Williamsburg will have new boxes of Virginia and North Carolina cards from a collection he recently acquired, AND Bob and Elizabeth Buchan, I believe, are bringing cards up too! I'll have some 25c boxes and others, plus all Club members are encouraged to bring cards to sell or trade.

Should be a great meeting – just the thing to get back into the swing of things if you took the summer off from collecting! Hope to see you Tuesday, August 9!

Do You Have An Unusual Virginia Postcard View/Message That You Would Like To Share?

Send me a scan of your most uncommon or strangely odd Virginia postcard view/message with a description of why it stands out as unusual, not the typical vintage postcard of yesteryear. There is no deadline for submission, they will be used as received. Mail to: clarketb@comcast.net or odpcc@yahoo.com.

Ernie White will be guest dealer at the September meeting.
